AT THE FACTORY.

30 years' experience, steam power and good machinery, enable me to give my customers the best value.

Persons desiring to get a first class machine, would save money by getting the Hastings Machine. I have good working machines of other make, family and manufacturing, on hand very cheap. I also repair these machines. I am the only manufacturer between Montreal and Hamilton.

THE UNLOVED WIFE

By Mrs. R. D. E. MORTIMER.

Worse words than a respectable household would ever utter to one of the first-class hotels. They were always very respectable. No one could be more about them, and they strangers would never be able to guess how much of a great deal of money you would be quite penniless

but you could say anything and by the way, what sort of employment do you expect to find?

"I hardly know. I might be an amusement for some lady or gentleman right down on the street. Let me alone, my dear, unless it happen to be your very own dear husband. And to enter the lady's employment you would have to go to the office. I do hope you recollect, my dear,

"No, said Edith, I have none, not

one, and I am sure that all to advise

me, I cannot hope to get one.

"Does it mean, Mrs. Pomeroy, taking a long look at Edith's face, that you are all right. I am sure you are all right. You are not the sort of child to run away from other people's misfor-fortune. I tell you what I will do; I will write a letter to your father, and ask him to send you some money. You must have some money, and I will write him to send you some money.

"No, said Edith, I have none, not

one, and I am sure that all to advise

me, I cannot hope to get one.

STILL AHEAD

CARPETS

ALTHOUGH our carpet sale has been so long, we have been able to sell many new patterns as the season advanced. We offer these now at the lowest prices. The quantity that we have sold is a guarantee that the quality is so far better than we do not now intend to be undersold by any other house in the trade.

We will still show the largest assortment at lower prices than the same class of goods can be purchased elsewhere.

The talk ran something like this:

"Mrs. Fossan, a very dear friend of mine, was one day in the South, to try to get something to do in New York."

"They say her father was a rich planter, who was totally ruined in the late war."

"At last, she was married to a banker of Richmond, who failed in '65."

"A great mistake, she was the only child of a wealthy Virginia planter."

"Oh, no! a Washington merchant who became a bankrupt last year, and who was ruined by the war."

"At last, however, the chaotic state came into form and shape, and permanent conditions were established."

"Miss Widling, for that was the name of Mrs. Fossan, had heard and reported the worst of the war, and her husband had forbidden her to see him."

"His name, however, had been given to her by the lady's son, and she had been told that he was in the army."

"The lady, however, was not to be deterred, and she had been told that he was in the army."

SAMARITAN NERVE

For who is all the same as a daughter to me, and I have no other child, and the poor mother who lives in the world of the living in a changeable world. Few of us have the good of the future to live where our father lives.

It would be tedious and irrelevant to tell of the trials of the various children of the Samaritan Nerve.

For many years the house was kept by the old lady, but it was left to the young.

Many opportunities had the pretty little girl had, but she had remained faithful to the memory of her first love.

Little had never been permitted a lover to become a suitor; for as soon as her delicate perceptions discovered that this of her brother, in the church, or boarder
 in the house, had cast an eye of "favor"

on her, the very next day she would throw such a shower of coldness around that, however gentle and courteous he might be, he would not return the least of the invariable boundary of that circle.

For her most ardent admirer of his kind, when "chafed on the subject of his inaction."

"She is as sweet and gentle, as kind and courteous as it is possible for woman to be, and I would make love to her with my eyes shut."

"But I am a poor fellow, and I have no money to make love to her with."

"But I am a poor fellow, and I have no money to make love to her with."

The Alleged Gerry-mander.

The above of the billings of the Grit party in Parliament, on the platform and to the press as to the so-called Gerry-mander have been carefully examined.

Hon. Mr. Stewart, in his masterly speech in the House, showed the inconsistency of the howl which was raised on the subject, and the Premier at Niagara made a similar declaration.

The result shows that the allegations of these gentlemen were correct.

The following table shows the political complexion of the redistributed constituencies in 1878 and in 1892, and also how the new constituencies voted on the 20th.

The cry of "gerry-mandering" has been a new election device, as of the six new constituencies which it was alleged the Government had created as "pocket boroughs" for their supporters, no less than four were carried by the Opposition, whilst of old riding the Grits won five more than they did in 1878. These figures are conclusive. Let us hear no more of "gerry-mandering."

The Grit Forecast.

The following is the forecast which took place of the elections that took place on the 20th:

Ontario.	Opp.
Conwall & Stormont.	45
New Brunswick.	9
Prince Edward Island.	1
Majority for Opposition.	54
Let the reader compare this with the result, which was as follows:
Ontario.	64
Quebec.	54
New Brunswick.	15
Prince Edward Island.	2
Government majority.	68

Editorial Givings.

The Montreal Witness (Grit) remarks as follows on the great victory won by the Government: "The Government has won a great victory. Although the result will show a somewhat reduced majority in the House, yet in one respect the victory is a greater one than that of the 17th September, 1878. The first victory was one obtained on the strength of promises, which could not be fulfilled, whilst that of Tuesday was upon a policy which has already been inaugurated. The Government has not pledged itself to anything new, it has simply pointed to what it claims to be the results of the National Policy, and it has been supported."

As an evidence of how the woolen trade is booming under the N. P., we may mention that Mr. John Lester has received a letter from the Dominion Wool and Woollen Company, asking him to hold out a certain order for 500 pairs of blankets, as all their own mills are full of orders and other work has had to be refused. This is one benefit of the N. P. under which other trades are flourishing equally.

On Tuesday, before the result was known, our local newspaper said: "It is quite evident that a full vote will be polled, and that party line will be rigidly drawn in nearly every division." Just so, and the result is that Belleville is Conservative by 340 majority.

A rumor is current that the general election for the Ontario Legislature will be held in September. We do not believe the rumor, as the House will first meet and a redistribution bill will be passed before the election is brought on.

Mr. Ashley asks us to deny that he ever stated that Mr. Brown was not a fit man to represent the people in Parliament.

Good is excellent for filling decayed teeth, but "Tanner" prevents the decay, makes them white, and makes people healthy.

The Result.

Returns from 90 of the 92 constituencies in which elections were held in Ontario on the 20th have been received. Of these the Conservatives have carried 44 and the Opposition 36, and as Algoma will probably elect a Conservative, the final returns will be: Government 56; Opposition 34, and a majority of 20 for the Government in the Province, and thus the howl as to French rule is given its quietus.

All the constituencies in Quebec have been heard from except Chaboussier and Saguenay, where the election is yet to take place. It will not doubt choose a supporter of the Government, and the result will be: Government 54; Opposition 11—a gain of 2 seats for the Government.

In Nova Scotia 15 Conservatives and 6 Grits have been elected; New Brunswick 15 Conservatives and 4 Grits; Prince Edward Island 2 Conservatives and 4 Grits.

Conceding one seat to the Opposition in Manitoba, the supporters of the Government will number 145 and the Opposition members 66, giving the Government a majority of 79.

CELEBRATING THE VICTORY.

LAST NIGHT'S DEMONSTRATION.

The great political victory of the 20th was celebrated with much enthusiasm by the Conservative party in this city last night. The demonstration, however, was almost as spontaneous as the one on Tuesday evening, no notice of it having been given, and the only notice of it was that of our citizens not having learned of it until they read the announcement in last evening's Intelligencer. The procession, therefore, was not extensive, but it was made up of the people had been made aware of what was going to take place. But the procession was by no means an insignificant one. It consisted of about fifty vehicles and a great number of men on foot bearing torches, Roman candles, etc. A number of transparencies, on which were painted suggestive mottoes were borne aloft in the crowded wagons. The procession as it wound its way through the streets was a very pretty spectacle, and taken with the enthusiasm which accompanied it, was an event not soon to be forgotten. The Intelligencer band led the procession, and it was headed by Messrs. Wm. J. Taylor and S. Wade, both of whom performed their duties well. Near the head of the cortege was the carriage of Mr. Alexander Robertson, M.P., Hon. M. Howell, John White, M.P., and Dr. Boulter, M.P., and when the faces of these gentlemen came into the view of the crowds that lined the streets, loud cheers were repeated given. Vehicles and torch-bearers followed in succession, and the 10th Battalion Band followed the march with music about midway. Among those who came from a distance to "rejoice with those that did rejoice" were observed Messrs. Chas. Craig, of Strirling; T. P. Pearce and A. L. Carnell, of Montreal; T. Webb, of Brighton; and A. F. Wood, John Cawley, S. D. Ross, and John Robertson, of Macdonald. All along the line of the march the sidewalks were crowded with spectators, and the cheering from them was continuous. All the city was moved, as it appeared, and the whole population seemed to be on the streets to help to do honor to the occasion. The large number of ladies among the spectators is worth noting, and all they appeared to be as enthusiastic as the men—many of them much more so. There is no reason to doubt the statement which was very positively made by a lady last evening, namely, that fully three-fourths of the intelligent women in Belleville are staunch Conservatives.

The majority of the houses along the route which the procession took were brilliantly illuminated, and in several windows appropriate devices were to be seen. The illuminations were far more general than had been anticipated, and in addition to the illumination of their houses, several gentlemen had Chinese lanterns hung in their parlors, and the effect was very pleasing. One enthusiastic Conservative illuminated his fine residence with a red light as the procession passed, and another had an illuminated portrait of the Premier in one of the windows of his drawing-room. Many similar features could be noticed if we had the space to enumerate them. The Intelligencer Club were in the procession again, doing good service with torches and Roman candles. The long march being over, the crowd assembled on the market square, just under the red light as the procession passed, and the eastern wall of the City Hall, where addresses were made. All the speakers—especially the members elected for the three readings of Hastings—were received with vociferous cheering, and their remarks received eager attention and prompt approval.

Mr. Robertson spoke first, and was followed by Mr. White, who in his turn gave place to Mr. Howell. All three of these gentlemen delivered stirring addresses, though evidently suffering from hoarseness—the result of their exertions during the recent campaign—and their remarks were frequently interrupted by cheers. Brief addresses were then delivered by Messrs. C. W. Bell, Dr. Boulter, Geo. D. Dickson and A. F. Wood. All of which were received with plaudits from the vast crowd. The demonstration was then brought to a close by hearty cheers being given for the Queen, Sir John Macdonald, and the three members-elect for Hastings.

MORNING DESPATCHES

EUROPEAN.

THE RUSSIAN TROUBLE.

ALBANY, June 23.—Duchess Watson and Harry returned safely from Cairo. All the Americans, except the family of General Stone, are leaving, or are in safety. The greater part of the American Mission left for Liverpool with the British Admiral, and are making a disposition to support the leading troops at Alexandria. The Egyptian army is showing signs of great anxiety and consternation at the continued arrival of war ships. The exodus of fugitive conscripts. Crowds are thronging the Egyptian ships. The Russian mission to inquire into the massacre was dissolved on account of negligence and incapacity. The French mission is not much better.

MARRIAGE LIST.

LONDON, June 23.—A letter from Matthew Harris, a prominent Land Leasing, deploring the creation of a deep interest both in Ireland and in political circles in England. The letter says that already Davis has done more damage to the cause of Ireland than a dozen Forsters with a dozen conscription acts at their backs could accomplish. Harris says that Davis's motive may be, his actions from day to day show his release are such as to cause disorder and confusion throughout the whole Irish race. The letter also says that of the six hundred thousand farmers, who with their families number over three millions, are tenants to the British Government, Ireland might bid farewell to her long cherished hope of becoming an independent nation. When Davis asserts that there is little difference between Parnell and himself, he shows more ignorance than a dealer. As a rule a gull as ever existed between men, no public subject, exists between them. Harris argues against the land nationalization scheme as unpractical, and visionary, and favors the peasant proprietary, as that has been tested by experience, and which has brought improved population, wealth, and power to every nation that adopted it, to form its agricultural system.

SILENCING THE PRESS.

LIMA, May 31.—General Lynch published a decree silencing the press, and suspending the Constitution, a Chilean paper. News that Chileans are allowed to engage in the publication of newspapers.

RAKE TALKING ABANDONED.

St. Louis, June 23.—O. B. Owen, recruiting agent of the Third National Bank, was arrested last night on a charge of embezzling $15,000, the funds of the bank. It is said that Owen's operations extended over several years, and have been carefully concealed.

TERRIBLE LOSS.

Dec Moines, Ia., June 23.—Another terrible storm passed over Iowa yesterday. The recently desolated town of Malvern was struck to its three hours. The damage to the goods stored from Saturday's storm was enormous, probably total. Considerable damage at Pleasant Villa. It is thought the damage east and north of there was more severe.

NEW YORK NOTES.

New York, June 23.—Catherine MacDonnell yesterday obtained a verdict of $10,000 against Elizabeth Clark for injuries caused by falling into a coal hole in the premises. As the coal hole was a broken collection yesterday, a silver half-dollar issued 1792, brought $350, another of the same year, but different design, brought $125.

WASHINGTON SPECIAL.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Lieut. Danaher thinks that the master of the Pulitzer, who was carried off on an ice flow at St. Lawrence Bay, may have reached St. Lawrence Island, and had some chance of escape.

IT IS STATED THAT REID WILL HAVE AN INTERVIEW WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO-DAY, AND URGES THE PETITION ON BEHALF OF GUILIAN'S RESERVE.

PETITION TO RAILWAYS.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Many of the prominent mercantile firms are signing a petition to the railroad managers calling attention to the serious embarrassment and injury to trade in the city by the controversy between the railroad and freight holders.

LABOR STRIKES.

The well known firm of Pittsburg, and several in Cleveland, Philadelphia and Cincinnati.

ARIZONA NEWS.

CHANDLER, June 23.—An Arizona well sunk near St. Bernard's, the flow is ninety gallons per minute, and that amount of water contains a bushel of salt.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

OPPOSITION TO THE LAND LEAGUE.

LONDON, June 23.—A company comprising Irish noblemen and land owners has been formed as a purely commercial speculation, for the purpose of defeating the influence of the Land League, and supplementing the work of the property defense association. The company will take possession of evicted lands and work them to the greatest possible advantage.

THE CONFERENCE.

LONDON, House of Commons, June 23.—Gladstone stated that all the representatives of the powers at Constantinople, except Austria, received instructions for guidance at the conference. He had no reason to think Austria objected to the conference. Gladstone said that the object to control the Government and neutralization of the Suez Canal was outside the scope of the conference.

THE UNLOVED WIFE

By Mrs. J. D. R. Southworth.

The lady had her husband led into the golden snare of matrimony, and she

the girl. And after this came the hand on Lillith's head and whisper:

"I have seen you with my life. I can remember the time when my will was as free as the wind, and my now feel the last six months have been of changes for me. The past seemed might have added. "And for me" but she did not. The past seemed

I was an American, my dear, as you might know by my speech, and I was born and married in America, though my father and my husband were both subjects of the Empire of Austria. I was the only child

of my father and his second wife, and in life and love lost his wife in the same hour that gave him his child. But he was married a second time, but devoted himself to me. In time I became the idol

of my father and his second wife, and my husband were both subjects of the Empire of Austria. I was the only child
